2. (Currently Amended) The process for preparing an albumin preparation wherein an albumin-containing solution is subject to a step of filtration with a virus-removing membrane before a step of heat treatment sufficient to inactivate virus in a liquid state;

wherein said process comprises treating the albumin-containing solution with an anion exchanger and/or a prefilter before a step of filtration with a virus-removing membrane.

3. (Previously Presented) The process for preparing an albumin preparation according to claim 2 wherein said virus-removing membrane used in a step of filtration with a virus-removing membrane has a pore size of 10 to 20 nm.

Claim 4. (Canceled)

5. (Currently Amended) The process for preparing an albumin preparation of ~~claim 4~~ claim 2 comprising using said prefilter, wherein said prefilter has a pore size of 35 to 200 nm.

6. (Original) A process for pretreating an albumin-containing solution before a step of filtration with a virus-removing membrane which comprises treating said albumin-containing solution with an anion exchanger and/or a prefilter before a step of filtration of said albumin-containing solution with a virus-removing membrane.

7. (Original) The process for pretreating an albumin-containing solution of claim 6 wherein said prefilter used in said treatment has a pore size of 35 to 200 nm.
